Speech Therapy is More than Just Teaching Children to Talk

Presenter: Sarah Rosten M.A., CCC-SLP/L & Lane Hepp M.S., CCC-SLP/L

Date: April 20, 2018

Time: 8:00-3:15

Location: First Presbyterian Church, 805 Western Ave, Joliet, IL 60435

Program:

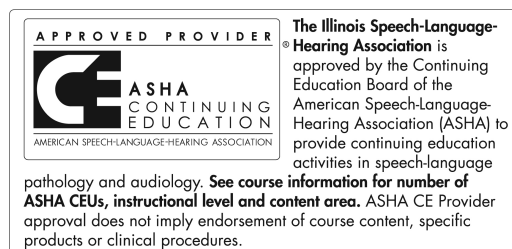

Therapists may have to address the foundational skills of learning and development prior to teaching a child to "talk". It is important to explain these skills to families, why they are important and how these activities can support children in learning to communicate and more effectively target speech and language goals. Family participation is a critical component of successful pediatric therapy. Therapists play an important role in coaching and supporting families.

Time Ordered Agenda:

8:00-8:30am: Registration
8:30-10:00am: Goals and Foundations of Learning/Development
10:00-10:15am: Break
